Address by Mildred Phelps.
Short talk by Judge Moffit This by Judge Moffat - Was Mildred Lucy Phelps a daughter of Samuel Yale who settled in Red Oak in 1857. gave a talk it was a frightfully hot afternoon Mrs Phelps told about the earliest survey of a part of the County. In addition to this she had made searches among the papers of some of the old settlers She had found read and exhibited to us some very interesting material on long pages of foolscap very yellow and very thin containing the report of Mr — the teachers who taught Red School in 1846. This list gave the names of persons attending the studies they pursued and the number of days they attended. She also had the original subscription of the people in the neighborhood who organized and raised the funds with which to buy the organ for use in the Red Oak School

Filing of the Auditors report for the coming year, Rous, she had spent time accumulating the material which she used

On motion of John J. Moffit seconded by Dr L. Leech of West Branch Mrs Mildred Yule Phelps was designated and elected as Permint Historian of Cedar County Old Settlers Association. After the election she asked that every time friends found items of interest they mail them to her so that she could file them and use them. Col 6 4 85 paid out Quarter 2 Programs and typing $1.50

Mrs Mildred Yule Phelps was elected County Historian. Copies of this sent State Historical Society by John J. Moffit

Song Auld Lang Syne.
